You don't need a driver's license
to compete in NASCAR.

Technically, a state's driver's license is not needed to compete in NASCAR. Even drivers who have had their actual driver licenses suspended for everything from reckless driving to DUIs were still able to race in NASCAR.

Alaska is the largest state in the United States, and was sold for a total of $7.2 million, which amounts to about 2 cents per acre. The state was purchased from Russia in 1867. In the 50 years that followed, America made their money back for the $7.2 million more than 100 times over.

Life is Karma, and the best Karma is to be respectful of the earth, ocean,
wildlife, and the human race.

~Javier V. Sanchez

The majestic Fabyan Windmill on the east side of Fabyan Forest Preserve. The 68-foot, 5-story structure was originally built by Louis Blackhaus, a German craftsman, between 1850 and 1860. The Windmill originally stood on a site in what is now Lombard, Illinois.

In 1914, it was purchased by George Fabyan for about $8,000, and moved here to Riverbank.

Abraham Lincoln is in the Wrestling Hall of Fame. Defeated only once in approximately 300 matches, Lincoln reportedly talked a little smack in the ring. According to Carl Sandburg's biography of Lincoln, Honest Abe once challenged an entire crowd of onlookers after dispatching an opponent: "I'm the big buck of this lick. If any of you want to try it, come on and whet your horns."
There were no takers.

The president Lincoln, who was assassinated on April 14, 1865, had signed legislation to create the U.S. Secret Service hours before he headed to Ford's Theatre. However, the Secret Service wouldn't have saved Lincoln had it been created in time - the original purpose was to combat widespread currency counterfeiting. It wasn't until 1901 that its M.O. was to protect the president.

The American Dream is still alive out there, and hard work will get you there.
You don't necessarily need to have an Ivy League education or to have millions of dollars startup money. It can be done with an idea, hard work and determination.

The dog ate John Steinbeck's
homework—literally.
The author's pup chewed up an early version of Of Mice and Men. "I was pretty mad, but the poor fellow may have been acting critically," he wrote.

There actually aren't "57
varieties" of Heinz ketchup, and never were. Company founder H.J. Heinz thought his product should have a number, and he liked 57. Hint: Hit the glass bottle
on the "57," not the bottom,
to get the ketchup to flow.

During prohibition, when people continued to consume alcohol despite its banning, law officials got frustrated and decided to try a different kind of deterrent: death. They ordered the poisoning of industrial alcohols manufactured in the U.S., which were products regularly stolen by bootleggers. By the end of Prohibition in 1933, the federal poisoning program is estimated to have killed at least 10,000 people.

The longest place name in the world, at 85 letters, is "Taumatawhakatangihangakoauauotamateaturipukakapi kimaungahoronukupokaiwhenuakitanatahu," New Zealand. Locals just call it Taumata Hill.

With a total height of 361 feet, the Illinois capitol is the tallest non-skyscraper capitol, even exceeding the height of the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C. Visitors can watch Illinois politics in action from balcony-level seating when the legislature is in session.

In Kentucky, the number of bourbon barrels outnumbers
the state's population by more than two million. That's a lot of bourbon. Kentucky is the birthplace of the drink and crafts 95 percent of the world's bourbon supply.

There is a sacredness in tears.
They are not the mark of weakness, but of power.
They speak more eloquently
than ten thousand tongues.
They are the messengers
of overwhelming grief,
of deep contrition, and
of unspeakable love.

The Canary Islands are named
after dogs, not birds.

Off the coast of northwestern Africa, the archipelago is part of Spain. The area's name is Islas Canarias, which is Latin for
"island of dogs."

You know you are from Illinois when...

- Your Biggest pet peeve is hearing the "S" pronounced in Illinois.
- You're either from a big city, or from a cornfield (there's really no in between).
- You have never had In-n-Out (you probably don't even know what that means).
- You have had a job detasseling corn before.
- Telling someone that you're from Illinois automatically means that you're from Chicago.
- You don't question it when you see someone in boots, shorts, and a jacket.
- DA BEARS!
- Everyone knows what you're referring to when you say "the city".
- Dick Van Dyke, Jerry Van Dyke, Bobby Short, and good ole Abe Lincoln.
- Whenever you're driving behind a slow driver and assume they are from Indiana.
- Being in a traffic jam due to a tractor or a combine is normal (if you don't live near the city).
- LOL means Land of Lincoln.
- Having to go to Indiana to get the "good fireworks".
- You've taken at least one trip to Six Flags Great America or The Dells for family vacation.

The hardest working muscle
in your body is your heart:
It pumps more than 2,000
gallons of blood a day and beats more than 2.5 billion
times in a 70-year life span.

The cast of Friends still earns around $20 million
each year due to negotiated
syndication rights.

A man with a beard and mustache is shown in profile, looking out from behind a torn piece of white paper. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green and blue. The text "I am more than who I am on paper." is written in a serif font, with "more" and "paper" underlined.

I am
more
than
who
I am
on paper.

I think it's just vapor. It won't hurt my kid like cigarettes, right?

The vapor that's inhaled from e-cigarettes contains harmful chemicals that can cause irreversible lung damage.

And e-cigarettes have nicotine, a toxin that's addictive and can change your kid's brain. Those are the facts.

Talk to your kid about vaping. Get the facts at
